

Funhouse Band Pittsburgh - Biography

For the last decade, Funhouse has been entertaining crowds around the greater Pittsburgh area and beyond! Started in 2012, Funhouse played a variety of hard rock hits before eventually settling on a unified musical direction. Looking back at their roots and knowing they wanted to have a good time they could share with a cool crowd, the decision was easy! 80's rock and glam was the perfect choice to bring the partying, the fun, and the no-holds barred attitude from one of the greatest decades in history! At this point in the 3-ring circus known as rock and roll, Funhouse has assembled a perfect combination of incredible talent, a wealth of experience, fun-loving personalities, and guys that are willing to leave it all on stage every night for YOU! The goal for every show is to make sure you have "nothin' but a good time!" What can you expect at a Funhouse show? Songs you love by bands like Poison, Bon Jovi, Motley Crue, Journey and the like. A Funhouse show lives up to its name as it's often a 80's party rock circus, and everyone is invited! They bring sound, they bring lights, they bring the party!
